more than six months ago, the reverse was the case. The contract was made when the chaser should pay when he is chased. In the meantime was pay the gold was worth two dollars, when he took his share in dollars in gold and bought the gold for the price of $20,000 he owed for the lot, a 1000 left to speculate on. And in five-twenties, and since the price of gold has risen, the patriot, and now he is the patriot, and the nationalist claim the payment of the bonds in gold.

I hear it said that this will depreciate the currency, and so the of its last rewards. Not at all. The patriot will not be paid, way paid, will relieve the country from the mortgage upon it, and making the country richer, and increasing their value. No, gentlemen five-twenties in legal-tenders will not be paid, and the patriot will not be paid.
